PRESIDENT'S PERSPECTIVE:

In Memoriam

by Carol Robertson, AAUW-La Crosse Branch President

A month ago little did I know that I would be writing about the loss of Pat Staupé for this issue of the Current. As you have heard, Pat lost her fight with leukemia on October 20th. Our Branch has lost a dear friend and tireless leader. Her efforts as Chair of AAUW Art Fair on the Green, a position she held since the year 2000, have enabled us to award thousands of dollars in scholarships to deserving students. She is the one that kept reminding all of us that our goal was to raise money for scholarships and the Art Fair was the means to accomplish that goal. When an idea was proposed that might cost more money and thus reduce the amount of money available for scholarships, she would remind us of the goal and question whether the expenditure would ultimately enable us to bring in more revenue. She was not adverse to “spending money to make money” but wanted to make sure we always kept in mind the purpose of the Art Fair. As one of the artists emailed this week, “Pat was one of the really good things about your show”.

Pat not only served as Chair of the Art Fair, but as Awards Chair and Publicity Chair. She joined AAUW July of 1984 and has served our Branch as Corresponding Secretary, Phone Coordinator, Membership VP, and Hearth & Home Coordinator, just to name a few of the positions she held. She was one of the recipients of the Name Grant Award in '90-'91.

As Hearth & Home Study Group Leader, she made new members feel welcome in a small group setting so that they would feel more comfortable when attending a general meeting. Pat was the first person I met when I walked up to the AAUW booth at the Art Fair I attended after moving to La Crosse. She gave me membership materials, followed up and invited me to sit with her at my first general meeting.

Members have been emailing me their memories and responses to her passing – “loved her teaching stories”, “this is a hard one”, “thinking of her all day”, “wonderful work she did for her students and AAUW”, “great lady and strong contributor”.

We lost her talents too soon but will remember her humor and her fighting spirit.

Cards or notes of condolences may be sent to Pat’s mother at:

Included in this generosity are the collaborative efforts of support from Mayo Franciscan Health Care and Gundersen Health Systems, the gifts of time and talents shared by over 300 professional volunteers, and the monetary contributions of donors. Those included in these groups believe access to (affordable) health care essential.

Joni will talk about hours of operations, eligibility, numbers of patients served weekly/annually, and future of clinic with Affordable Care Act.

Joni says, “Working at SCHM is fulfilling; it has given me the opportunity to get to know the wonderful people who volunteer at SCHM and the patients we serve. It is a privilege to live in a community where resources of time and dollars are shared to provide access to health care for those who are financially unable to otherwise access it and an honor to work alongside those who share in the pursuit seeing health care access a priority in our community and country.”

She is married to Ralph (29 years). They have two daughters, Ana and Natalie. Ana is married to a wonderful man, Chris.

YWCA Tribute to Outstanding Women Dinner By Jan Eriksen

Some friends of AAUW are being honored at the Tribute to Outstanding Women Awards Ceremony on Thursday evening, November 14. We're sponsoring an AAUW table of 10 at the event. Deb Hoskins, chair of the Gender and Sexuality Studies Department at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, is one of the honorees. She was instrumental in arranging for UW-L to be a College/University partner with AAUW.

Susan Fabian, a graduate of the Self-Sufficiency Program, will be receiving the College award. Susan was a recipient of one of our branch's continuing scholarships to attend UW-L. We also sponsored and supported her for the NCCWSL. Sue Peterson will be honored in the Community Outreach category. Sue is a vital part of the Self-Sufficiency board. Other honorees are Susan Batell, Elise Denlinger, Kenna Christians, Jennifer Livingston, Liz Arnold, Karla Stanek, and Heather Baker.

The event will be held November 14 at the La Crosse Center South Hall Ballroom. The social begins at 5:30 p.m. on, with dinner and the awards ceremony taking place from 6:00 to 8:30 p.m. The cost is $55.00 per person. The AAUW table is filling quickly, but if you'd like to join us please E-mail member Jan Eriksen at jpriksen@viterbo.edu or call her at 787-5946 as soon as possible.

Public Policy

By Carlene Roberts, Public Policy Chair

AAUW WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE DAY

On Oct. 16 I attended AAUW Legislative Day with Betty Kruck and Pam Thiel. WI Public Policy Chair Barbara Peterson had put together an information packed morning with speakers focused on AAUW priorities: Women's Health, Public Education Issues, Pay Equity, Medical and Family Leave, Campaign Finance Reform and Redistricting. In the afternoon the 3 of us visited our respective state representatives, and together met with State Senator Jennifer Schilling. We shared information from our morning sessions and offered AAUW resources on issues.

The information we gathered could fill several Currents, but I will share a few bullet points with you:

- Planned Parenthood is the largest provider of women's health care in Wis.
- Funding for Planned Parenthood was cut from the state budget, leading to the closing of 4 of 23 clinics.
- Planned Parenthood use of a state laboratory for cancer screenings was eliminated.
- Wisconsin's Equal Pay Act has been rescinded.
- In Wisconsin the 2012 median earnings for men was @ $47,000 and for women @ $36,500. This discrepancy, approximately 1/2 million dollars during a workers life time, leads to less safe healthy housing, decreased food security, lower savings for children's education, less retirement savings, lower social security payments, etc.
- The share of the state budget dedicated to education has dropped from 43% to 33% in recent years.
- Vouchers for private school education are offered to families earning up to 300% of the poverty level and pay 100% of the tuition. State funding pays 61% of the cost of a public school education.
- In Wis. the campaign funding from 32 donors, some from out of state, equaled that of 3 million others in the last election cycle.
- After 185 years, campaign donations had been equated with freedom of speech, a concept not described in our Constitution or Bill of Rights.
- Assembly Bill 225 (passed) and Senate Bill 282 (in process) eliminate the required disclosure of a donors' employer/connections.
