

55th AAUW Art Fair on the Green

by Pat Staupe, Chair

Our AAUW Art Fair on the Green is about a month away; committee members are busy taking care of the details. We've had a good response in filling the work slots for working at the raffle, selling tickets and concessions. It takes many people to make this event run smoothly so please call Marla French to volunteer if you haven't been contacted.

Thank you to George Kruck and Lori Kaufmann for volunteering to handle Hospitality this year. They will be serving coffee and muffins to the artists Saturday morning. Also, thank you to George for purchasing coffee from one of our vendors for all of the artists!

Watch for the art fair advertisement on Ch. 8. This is new and exciting! Betty Kruck and Carol Robertson are securing sponsors to help with the cost. The ad will run 20 times on Ch. 8 during the news throughout the day and evening the week preceding the art fair. It will also run 20 times on My Network, from noon until midnight during that week.

Our art fair is our main source of income to support the scholarships we give each year. We have been fortunate in being able to attract many wonderful artists. This event is a great place to find that unusual gift as well as buying artwork for your own enjoyment.

Let's make this our best art fair ever!

PRESIDENT'S PERSPECTIVE:

Thank You!

by Carol Robertson, AAUW-La Crosse Branch President

Sitting down to write this, I checked the results of the election at the AAUW Convention in New Orleans for Board of Directors. Our own Pam Thiel has been elected to the Board of Directors! Congratulations to her; she will be a valuable asset on the Board. Thank you to all of you who took the time to vote for her. We look forward to hearing from her about the convention and the plans for the coming year for national.

We concluded our regular meetings with a wonderful Scholarship Brunch. Congratulations to all the deserving recipients. It was heartwarming to hear their stories (must remember Kleenex)! Thanks to the Scholarship Committee for their fine work, especially Robert Richardson and Sharon DeCicco, co-chairs. Your commitment to this effort is greatly appreciated. We look forward to some of our recipients volunteering at this year's Art Fair on the Green.

Speaking of the art fair, we now turn our efforts to ensuring that we will continue to award this number of scholarships. In this edition of The Current are various ways you can contribute to the success of the art fair. Contact Marla French, volunteer coordinator, and let her know what you can do.

Betty Kruck and I attended the WI State Convention of AAUW April 27-28 in Racine. We heard from a lawyer and plaintiff in the Wal-Mart pay discrimination suit, saw "The Invisible War" (Oscar nominated documentary on sexual assault in the military – see it on PBS), shared our Branch successes, participated in workshops, and saw a presentation by a local actress portraying a runaway slave who traveled the underground railroad through WI. We shared our hosting of the $tart $mart pay negotiations workshop. Other branches had questions on how to host; it was good to hear that branches are encouraged to use this as a tool to address pay equity.

By the time you read this, the Board will have conducted its final meeting on June 13th. I thank the members of the board, both new and old, for their willingness to serve. We could not accomplish all we do without the efforts of all of you.

See you at Art Fair on the Green, July 27 & 28!

Art Fair Grounds Help Needed

By Carlene Roberts, Grounds Co-Chair

Spring is in the air, summer isn't far off, and the Art Fair is fast approaching. Alice Ross and I are in charge of Grounds, which means:

- 1-set up on Fri. morning
- 2-closing fences at the end of Fri. and Sat.
- 3-opening restrooms each morning
- 4-helping artists & food vendors with their grounds questions/needs Fri.- Sun.
- 5-collecting garbage at the end of the day on Sat.
- 6-and take down at the end of the fair on Sunday.

We 2 cannot accomplish all this - especially set up and take down - by ourselves. In the past we have had a wonderful crew of volunteers, with many hands making light work.

Set up involves measuring and staking out artist spaces, placing tables and chairs where needed, putting up the AAUW tents and placing signs around the neighborhood.

We can use 10-15 people on Friday morning. Take down is the reverse-without measuring artist spaces - so 8-10 people is plenty.

Are any of you available Friday the 26th between 8 and 11 a.m.? Or Sunday the 28th from 4 to 5 or 6 p.m.? Spouses, teen or young adult children, and friends have been a great addition in the past. I look forward to hearing from each of you so we can build our teams.

2013 AAUW ART FAIR ON THE GREEN INFORMATION

Concessions: by Betty Kruck

Our AAUW branch will sell water and soda at the art fair again this summer. Any donations of water and soda will add to our art fair profits. Please contact Michele Strange or Betty Kruck if you have beverages to donate. We particularly need bottled water, diet and regular coke and diet pepsi. While at the fair, please check out the special AAUW can cozies our branch will have for sale.

We will have a number of outside food vendors at the fair. That Salad Place will sell sandwiches, wraps and salads. Cabin Coffee will have coffee, iced and hot tea and their own roasted packaged coffee. Crepes JeanLuc will sell pastries on Saturday and a variety of crepes on Sunday. The Little Shop of Cheesecakes will be back selling fresh squeezed lemonade and frozen cheesecake on a stick. Cowboy Kettle Korn will also return with his kettlekorn.

Volunteers: by Marla French

If you haven't yet emailed me or called to volunteer at the Art Fair on the Green, please do so as soon as possible. I'd so much rather hear from you first, rather than have to call and beg people to work. There are approximately 70 positions to fill, from set up to take down, with ticket sellers, concession workers, raffle booth workers and booth sitters. Many of you work in several positions, as well as volunteering your husbands and daughters. That's so helpful, but I need to hear from you soon.

If you are able to help this year, please call or email Marla French. (782-6589 or mfrench000@centurytel.net). Help is needed as early as Friday, July 26th for set up and as late as 4:00 P.M. when the fair closes at on Sunday and until the final trash bag is carried away and the tents are packed up. In between are shifts of sellers in the different areas.

These are generally 2 1/2 to 3 hours .

Public Policy

By Carlene Roberts, Chair

The Elementary and Secondary Education Act

Congress is once again trying to reauthorize the federal law governing public education - BUT if we don't speak up it may not get done right. After 2 years of waivers for the 'No Child Left Behind Act', 37 states have agreed to the president's plan for education for their states, but this is not a long term solution. Unfortunately the House Education and Workforce Committee approved a bill that is wrong in so many ways:

- eliminates federal enforcement of narrowing the achievement gap
- gives a free pass to states to define their own standards, assessment and accountability systems
- freezes funding levels for K-12 public education
- ignores the need for comprehensive bullying and harassment policies in public schools
- fails to provide adequate protections for students' civil rights.

In addition, as we have seen in Wisconsin, some members of Congress have vowed to add amendments to divert funds to private and religious schools through voucher plans.

The Elementary and Secondary Education Act, ESEA (H.R. bill 5) now heads to the full House floor. On June 20th the AAUW Lobby Corp visited the House, telling our representatives that our kids deserve a better bill. WE NEED TO DO THE SAME. Contact Rep. Ron Kind to support a better ESEA - 202-225-5506 or 608-782-2558 or 205 5th Ave. SO., Suite 400, LaCrosse, 54601 or 1406 Longworth HOB, Washington D.C. 20515.

Wisconsin State Budget and Wisconsin Women

Watch for release this fall of a report outlining how the final WI State Budget will impact women and girls. Included in the assessment will be stories from WI women on the effects on their health, safety and economic security.

June 10th was the 50th anniversary of the Equal Pay Act. Through AAUW, as well as our votes, we can continue to work for the day when equal pay is a reality.

National Conference for College Student Women Report

by Karin Johnson, UW-L Student attendee

I am beyond grateful for the support that AAUW—Wisconsin and the AAUW—La Crosse Branch provided me to attend the National Conference for College Student Women leaders in College Park, Maryland May 30th-June 1st. I had the opportunity to connect with my female peers from across the country to follow the conference's theme to "Find our Voices."

The whole trip was fantastic but I'd like to share a few highlights. Because of the financial support I received from AAUW, I was able to attend the Women on Capitol Hill pre-conference. Not only did I get to tour the capital and spend the morning in Washington, D.C. (one of my favorite places!), but I also learned from a panel of women who work on the hill. As a woman who holds office and is passionate about women's involvement in public office and politics, it was empowering to hear the voices of women who shape today's national policies.

I am a political and public policy geek, so one event excited me more than anything on the whole trip—I got to meet former Secretary of Human Services Donna Shalala! We have talked about Donna Shalala in a few of my classes as a woman who aims high, achieves momentarily, and encourages others to do the same. Because of her role as previous Chancellor of UW-Madison she was impressed when we introduced ourselves as Wisconsinites. I have attached a picture of some fellow Wisconsin women I met at NCCSWL with Donna Shalala and me.

Thank you so much for the financial support to attend this conference and for all the hard work each of you puts in to creating these opportunities for women like me.
