

Mujeridad & Movement-- Landscapes of Beauty, Violence, Gender, Identity, & Racism: A Visual Aesthetic Journey in the USA & Latin America—A Quest for Understanding, Healing, & Dialogue during Historic Times in Indigenous Americas

Free and open to the public!

: Dr. Diana Elena Moran
Sanchez Thundercloud
(Kiahuatzin. Qori Sunju. Hiugewi)

February 10, 2024

10:30 am

Viterbo University
School of Nursing
La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Please RSVP to robert.richardson@eagle.uwlax.edu by 2/2/24

Dr. Moran Thundercloud has taught at colleges in the USA-- Southwest, Midwest, & Mexico. She has taught in Peru. Divides her time between Mexico City, Wisconsin (USA), & Peru. Public Policy Coordinator for AAUW & Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion Committee. Coulee Region Immigrant Task Force of Wisconsin. Women & Children. Grief & Loss. Consultant: Education. Policy & Law. Disabilities. Language & Culture. Environmental & Sustainability Education. Gender & Human Rights. Women & Children. Wellbeing. Arts *Awarded Caballero de Aguila. MEXICA. Mexico. An award for her contributions to MEXICA culture & traditions. Writer, teacher, citizen scientist, & photojournalist. Curriculum Historian. Explorer. Viterbo MBA/MASL Alumni Advisory Member.